TRUCK TOURISTS WILL REACH US ON THURSDAY

Big Train of Motor Trucks Leaves Cincinnati Today and Arrives Here Thursday at Noon.

The Kentucky "Motorize-the-Farm" tour which is to visit our city on next Thursday will be the biggest traveling educational feature ever attempted in this section. It has been organized as part of a national movement, having the endorsement of both the United States and State Departments of Agriculture to bring about a general betterment of farming conditions and to overcome labor and transportation difficulties by showing the farmer a dependable and economical means of producing and marketing his crops.

The modern motor caravan will consist of some twenty-five different makes of trucks, trailers and other farm hauling equipment, each equipped with a type of body specially designed for some particular kind of farm hauling. The motorcade is valued at $135,000 and will be one of the largest assembles of motorized farm hauling equipment ever seen south of Chicago or New York shows. In fact, it is really a monstrous traveling show carrying its own jazz band; a company of high class entertainers; several farm lecturers who will talk on present day farm conditions, modern farm methods and the advantage of motorization; and a complete lighting system to light up the caravan at the night controls.

Accompanying the tour will be a detail of each branch of the service—Army, Navy and Marine. The Army is sending along one of the mammoth searchlights mounted on a motor truck which was used in France to locate enemy aeroplanes flying over the lines at night.

This tour is purely an educational project and no individual advertising will be carried nor will any selling or attempt to solicit business be permitted at any time during the progress of the tour. The men who are donating the trucks, paying the cost of their operation and giving a week of their time to this movement appreciate the seriousness of the farm situation today and know that truck and tractor are the farmers' only salvation. They also realize that the rich agricultural resources of this section can only be developed to their fullest by the motorization of the farm.

MEETING TUESDAY TO DISCUSS LABOR DAY

Union Heads To Meet at Chamber of Commerce Tuesday Evening to Discuss Plans for Labor Day.

Definite plans for the celebration of Labor Day here on next Monday will be discussed at a meeting of the Presidents and Secretaries of all of the local labor unions to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Secretary George Kirk is calling this meeting that all of the union officials might get together and discuss intelligently some plan of celebration. It is understood that already plans have been laid for at least two ball games on this holiday but it is more than likely that the local unions will want to observe the day as a picnic at Beechwood Park. The Boys' Band will more than likely give a park concert and there may be some speaking.

The day will be generally observed as a holiday throughout the city and the city schools, although usually scheduled to open on the first Monday in September, will not open until the next day—Tuesday to give all of the children an opportunity to join in the celebration of labor's holiday.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE OPENS HERE WITH MANY ATTENDING

Forty Mason County School Teachers Register on First Morning of Teachers' Institute.

(By Prof. R. Y. Maxey.)

The Mason County Teachers' Institute convened in its annual session in the Sunday school room of the Third Street M. E. church with a very flattering number of teachers in attendance.

Mason county may well congratulate herself on the personnel of her teaching force and Supt. Turnipseed upon the interest and enthusiasm of his teachers.

Devotional was conducted by Rev. J. Dickey who made a most helpful talk, reviewing the duties and wonderful opportunities of the teacher.

Superintendent Turnipseed in his opening remarks read the law relative to teachers' attendance upon the institute, following same with appropriate words on good citizenship. He then made an urgent plea for the high schools.

Following a few minutes recess Supt. Turnipseed introduced Supt. W. P. King of Newport, Ky., who will instruct the institute. Mr. King in a very pleasant introductory indicated that there was only one direction toward which a good institute functions, and that one is to send the teachers to their respective schools in a happy mood, feeling that theirs is a work worth while.

Mr. King then entered upon the first of his course of lectures, "The Personal Fitness of the Teacher," which he handled in a most interesting and helpful manner.

The teachers enrolled are: Clarence Martin, Lucy Shipley, Amanda McDaniel, Mrs. Dollie Landreth, Lena Shipley, Margaret Whaley, Emma Kalb, Louise Douglas, Mrs. Lee L. Boyd, Sallie E. Slack, Frances Tuggle, Allie King, Florence Brannen, Lillian Wallingford, Mary Schlitz, Margaret Perkins, Ethel Hart, Lena Hart, Lena Kochler, Elizabeth Jefferson, Susana Herndon, Vivian Bramell, Fannie Worthington, Jessie Dodson, D. A. Hopkins, Sam H. Lee, Alice Byar, G. E. Everett, Mabel Ashby, Edith Davis, Lillie Wiggins, Emma Cord, Mrs. Agnes Guilfoyle, Mrs. Theo. Culen, Ellen Osborne, Flora Stairs, C. E. Turnipseed, Agnes Hill, Leona Elliott.

BAPTIST MISSION BOARD MEETS HERE SATURDAY.

The District Mission Board of the Brecken Association of Baptists will hold its first meeting of the Association year at the First Baptist church in this city on next Saturday. The session will continue throughout the entire day and this will be the most important meeting of the year. Apportionments of the District Mission funds will be made to the needy churches of the district at this meeting. Representatives from the 28 churches in the district will be in attendance.

GETTING READY FOR COURT.

Officials of the Mason Circuit Court will spend this week getting things in readiness for the opening of the fall term of court which opens on next Monday morning at the court house. Although the docket is a rather large one and usually the September term is quite a busy one, it is hardly expected that there will be much criminal court. The September grand jury meets Monday to begin its investigations.

SCHOOL BOARD TO PLAN FOR SCHOOL OPENING.

The City Board of Education holds its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the High School building at which time all plans will be completed for the opening of school. There are three vacancies in the teaching staff to be filled but it is understood that these will be filled Tuesday and at the opening of school next week all teacher vacancies will be filled and every thing will be ready for a big year's work.

WILL DISCUSS PLANS FOR TOBACCO FAIR.

TEDDY HOOK AGAIN RUNS AFOUL OF LAW; HELD ON 2 CHARGES

Mason County Lad Who Has "Done Time" on Several Occasions at the State School Reform Arrested Here—Escaped Months Ago.

Teddy Hook, of the Cabin Creek neighborhood, who on various and sundry occasions has been arrested here and committed to the State School of Reform at Greendale, who has always shown that there's nothing at that institution to hold him, ran afoul of the law again this morning about noon and is now in the county jail where he is held awaiting word from Greendale.

Young Hook escaped from the Reform School nearly a year ago and for several months worked in Cincinnati always being able to evade the officials on the Kentucky side, however the field men of the state institution had their eye on him all the time. He left Cincinnati a few months ago and the officials did not know where he had gone until about two weeks ago when he went back to his old tricks of working checks and beat the firm of McClanahan & Shea out of nearly ten dollars. Hook purchased a tub in the local store and offered a check for ten dollars in payment. He was given the difference in cash and he left the tub. The check turned up "cold" but Hook could not be found.

On Sunday he was visiting at the home of Mrs. Sarah Bell Stacey, a neighbor on Cabin Creek. This morning Mrs. Stacey went for her pocketbook which she kept in a son's coat pocket hanging on the wall and she found that the pocket book and its contents — probably $5—was gone. Hook was suspected and the police were notified. Hook was arrested about noon today on Market street by Chief Ort.

Charges of petit larceny, and uttering a cold check were placed against him and the authorities at the State Reform school were notified. If the Greendale authorities want him, he will be turned over to them and if not he will be taken before the grand jury which meets Monday on the local charges.

Mrs. J. M. Henry has returned to her home in Indianapolis, Ind., after a pleasant visit of several weeks with the family of her son, Mr. R. G. Knox, in Market street.

HEAVY RAINSTORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN THIS COUNTY

Rain and Wind Sunday Afternoon Does Much Damage Throughout This Section — Railroad Trestle Is Threatened.

The rain and wind storm which visited Mayville and Mason county late Sunday afternoon did probably more damage throughout this section than any storm which has visited us in this summer of heavy rains and terrific thunder storms.

Limestone Creek which divides East and West Mayville was probably never so wild in the past twenty-five years as it was during and following this storm. Roads and pikes throughout the county were damaged much while culverts and bridges were swept out.

The most serious damage was probably done in the neighborhood between Mayslick and Lewisburg. Mr. Frank Lee, who lives in this section lost a large barn which was blown down and completely ruined. It is insured in the Mason County Mutual Insurance Company. Mr. Mark Brannon also had two large barns unroofed and in this section hillside crops were washed away.

Near the mouth of Limestone Creek a part of the C. & O. railroad trestle foundation was undermined and so dangerous does the damage appear that railroad officials have condemned the westbound main line and all trains are crossing the trestle on the east-bound track until the repairs can be made.

A large bridge on the Fleming pike near the watering trough was so badly damaged that it cannot be used while many small footbridges over Limestone Creek have been washed away and any number of smaller culverts have also been torn out by the terrific rush of the water.

Officer P. Ryan's tobacco crop in the Hunter bottoms near the L. & N. station was entirely covered by the waters of the creek and is completely ruined while in all parts of the county reports say that tobacco and corn has been swept away and entire fields entirely ruined.

BOOST THE WRITER'S GAMBLE.

Every cynical author knows, says the New York Evening Post, that literature, like marriage, is a lottery. Chance and malign fate, we are told, govern the awards of fame and lucre. News comes from Spain, however, of an innovation in the gambling end of this precarious business. Heretofore there have been three classes of magazines and reviews—those that pay their contributors, those that do not, and those that make the author pay for the privilege of seeing his work in print. Madrid has supplied a synthesis of all three. A weekly review has been founded there to which only subscribers can contribute. Every manuscript which is accepted receives a number. One in every ten is paid for, the lucky one being the manuscript whose number ends with the same figure as the winning number in the national lottery at the first drawing after the article is published.

Thus the normal exultations of journalism are augmented. The losers have at least the consolation of seeing their prose or verse published, while the winner enjoys the combined sensations of a successful speculator and an accepted author. The idea may be worth trying here. Our ingenuity should have no trouble in adapting the scheme to American conditions. The winning number might be determined by its coincidence with the date of the next strike, or the number of plaudits in a given Presidential campaign speech.

FRENCH WIVES MUST "OBEY."

Paris.—Social problems are coming even more to the front in these days, in spite of wars, crises and tumults which might otherwise be expected to have little leisure for what may fairly be defined as lighter or academic subjects. In accordance, therefore, with what experience has shown to be a somewhat fixed, if peculiar, dispensation, the Senate is being confronted with a proposition for the elimination of the article of this civil code which sets forth that "the husband owes protection to the wife—the wife obedience to the husband." As the Senators are men of mature age, and may therefore be credited with a certain amount of matrimonial experience, it is not surprising that their committee should have pronounced against this proposition. It is quite possible that most of these worthy gentlemen may conscientiously or may not have been for years either pleasantly guided or even firmly ruled by the ladies to whom they have been united. But when it comes to the promulgation of the decree—it is tantamount to this—that the wife can go her own way as she likes, it is a very different matter.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS.

"Hello! Is this G. J. Hicks, candidate for city councilman?"
"Yes."

There was a sickening thud, a moment's silence, and then a shrill cry of pain and fear.

Father flung down his book and rushed into the hall to find his five-year-old son sitting on the bottom step, sobbing bitterly.

DYE FROM SHELLFISH.

A beautiful purple dye is obtained from a shellfish which abounds on the Pacific Coast of Porto Rico. The process is simple. On picking up the shell from the beach, or detaching it from boulder, the gatherer blows his breath into it, whereupon a few drops of a greenish liquor ooze out.

The liquor is collected in a clam shell, and after a sufficient quantity has been collected the thread is passed through it, soon after assuming, on the exposure to sunlight a beautiful purple color, which is absolutely fast after it has turned.

ACTING THE PART.

Olga Nethersole never tired of telling the story of an experience on the road playing Sappho. You remember that the famous scene was that in which the hero and heroine confess their mutual love and the hero picks up the girl and carries her upstairs.

Now Miss Nethersole is not fat but at the same time she isn't a featherweight, but this could not be helped on a certain night when both the leading man and his first understudy were ill. Another chap, about the size of Billy Rock, played the part.

He got along fine until it came to carrying Olga up the flight of stairs. Try as he would, he could not lift her off the floor. The audience waited spellbound, wondering if he were going to lose out. It seemed as if he were weakening when a voice from the balcony shouted:

"Take it easy, old man. Just take what you can and come back for the rest."

WAS A GREAT RELIEF.

"It is an established fact," said the lecturer, "that the sun is gradually but surely losing its heat, and in the course of 70 million years it will be exhausted; consequently this world of ours will be dead, and, like the moon, unable to support any form of life."

The head and shoulders of an excited member of the audience rose above those of his fellows.

"Pardon me, professor!" he cried, "how many years did you say it would be before this calamity overtakes us?"

"Seventy million, sir," said the professor.

"Thank heaven!" gasped the interrogator, slinking back exhausted into his seat, "I thought he said seven million!" — London Tid-Bits.

King Alfonso cut short his recent visit to England in order to return to Spain to be with his mother on her birthday. Throughout his life he has never failed to spend that day with her.

"What's the matter?" he demanded.

"Boo—hoo," replied the youngster, "I slipped and fell downstairs."

"I'm ashamed of you, my boy!" said his father sternly, after ascertaining that no damage was done. "You're not hurt at all. Why don't you act like a man?"

"An' then you'd gimme a whipping, like you said you would if you ever heard me using such language again!"

"I'm ashamed of you, my boy!" said his father sternly, after ascertaining that no damage was done. "You're not hurt at all. Why don't you act like a man?"

OLDEST TREE FOUND.

Trees are the oldest living things in the world and the General Sherman tree of Sequoia National Park is probably the patriarch of them all. It was a goodly specimen when Moses led the children out of the land of Egypt and was 2,000 years old when Jesus of Nazareth was born. When last measured this tree was 273 feet high and 102.8 feet in circumference. — Detroit Free Press.

FARM NOTES.

Work on the farms in Mason county has been dragging this week because many of the farmers and the members of their families have been attending the fair and farm work has been allowed to drag somewhat. The weather has been at work, however, despite the fact that many of the farmers took this week as their play week and crops have been doing fine.

Farmers from all sections gathering at the fair are very much pleased with the prospects for good crops. Little complaint was heard and the most of this was about corn, which most everyone was expecting to break all previous records in Mason county.

Some farmers complain that their corn is not doing as it should and will not make as much grain as was expected. The ears are not filling out as they should and some say that on some of their heartiest appearing stalks there are no shoots appearing.

Officers and enthusiastic members of the Mason County Farm Bureau have taken advantage of the fairs in this section to boost the membership of the Farm Bureau and they have been very successful. At both the Ewing and Germantown fairs the Farm Bureau was thoroughly explained and quite a number of new members were signed up.

Reports on tobacco are very encouraging. The tobacco blight does not seem to have done any great amount of damage throughout the county. Quite a bit of the early crop has been cut and housed and much more will likely be cut and put in the house during this week.

The Mason County Poultry Association has been doing things this season and they are offering as good a showing of fowls as we believe any county in the entire state could offer. Maysville birds have carried away the premiums in great numbers showing that care is what is needed in poultry raising and breeding. The poultry enthusiasts of Maysville and Mason county will now begin arrangements for the biggest poultry show ever held in Kentucky at the big Fall Festival being promoted for October here in Maysville.

Some interest is being manifested in the coming here on next Thursday of a train of motor trucks on a tour through this section of Kentucky. Mason county farmers have long ago realized the value of the truck on the farm and there are scores of trucks in use throughout this section. More interest is being manifested in tractors in Mason county this year than in almost anything else on the farm. It has been learned that on the level rolling land of this county the tractor has proven its worth over and over and it is expected that before the next spring plowing season arrives there will be many more tractors in use. A big tractor demonstration is being planned for the big Tobacco Fair now contemplated for the month of October.

County schools open on Monday September 6th, and the teachers of all schools in the county will meet in Maysville this week for the annual Teachers' Institute which will be held at the Third Street M. E. church. Prof. W. P. King, a Mason county man, will be the only instructor, although the state will furnish several speakers throughout the week on special subjects. Mason county schools were never in better condition than they are at present and a fine year's work is expected.

PURCHASING POWER OF FARM PRODUCTS IS NOW HIGHER

Interesting Comparison of Prices Paid For Butter and Eggs and the Figures of Today.

An interesting comparison of the purchasing power of farm produce today compared with twenty-seven years ago is reported by a traveling salesman.

A general store has a sales ticket bearing an 1893 date showing the following transaction. A woman brought in ten pounds of butter and ten dozen eggs and exchanged for groceries.

The ticket reads:
10 pounds butter, at 5c $0.50
10 dozen eggs, at 5c50

Total $1.00

Bought:

5 pounds sugar, at 5c $0.25
6 pounds navy beans25
8 pounds bulk oats25
2 pounds coffee25

Total $1.00

The old ticket was hung in the display window as a curiosity. It so happened that a farmer's wife brought in some butter and eggs and for purposes of comparison bought the same bill of goods. Here is how the ticket of 1920 compared with that of 1893 on the same items:

Credit:

10 pounds butter at 60 cents $6.00
10 dozen eggs, at 40 cents 4.00

Total $10.00

Bought:

5 pounds of sugar at 19 cents $0.95
6 pounds navy beans at 12½ cents75
8 pounds bulk oats at 10½ cents86
2 pounds coffee, at 45 cents90

Total $3.45

"And the grocer handed over a difference of $6.55 cash to the farmer's wife," said the man who saw the transaction.

In Canada the North American Reindeer Company, capitalized at $750,000, has obtained a concession of 75,850 square miles of land north of the Churchill River to grave caribou and reindeer. This amounts to 48,000,000 acres, for which the Government charges the nominal sum of 4 cents an acre a year. The herds are being gathered by the company's agents.

WHAT'S THE REASON?
Many Maysville People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Dry after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Maysville. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "At times, my back has become weak and lame and has ached across my kidneys. My kidneys have been irregular in action and I have had dizzy spells and headaches. I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have never failed to relieve these complaints."

Prices 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Holliday had. Foster-McIlburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

Sir Ernest Rutherford, who enters upon his 50th year today, is one of the best known physicists in the world, having attained such distinction in the physical sciences that he might be deemed the most illustrious of living physicists. A native of New Zealand, Sir Ernest attended the leading schools and colleges in that country and then went to Cambridge to complete his studies. Since 1907 he has been Langworthy professor and director of physical laboratories the University of Manchester, England. In recent years he has devoted much attention to radio activity and has written a number of books on the phenomena of radio active substances and their radiations. He holds honorary degrees from upwards of a dozen universities in the Old and New Worlds, and has received medals of honor from a number of scientific societies and institutions of higher learning.

"Aunt Sally—she knew how all right"

WHEN I was small,
I USED to watch
AUNT SALLY
PUT UP fruit
AND VEGETABLES
FOR THE winter.
I REMEMBER how
SHE PACKED it all
IN CLEAN glass jars,
AND SEALED the tops
WITH PARAFFIN,
TO KEEP out
ALL THE air and keep
THE JUICY flavor in—
AND ALL the winter,
THANKS TO her,
WE HAD the fruits
OF SUMMER on our table,
SO WHEN I happened
ON SOME cigarettes
WRAPPED NEATLY up
IN A glassine jacket,
I DIDN'T think
IT WAS just for looks,
BUT RATHER that
THE EXTRA wrapper
KEPT AIR and dampness
ALL OUTSIDE
AND GOODNESS in.
SO THAT'S another
BLAME GOOD reason why
"THEY SATISFY."

QUITE right, that neat glassine jacket isn't just for looks. It protects your Chesterfields from the weather—seals in the flavor of those wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—keeps them in prime shape for smoking! Rain or shine, winter or summer, Chesterfields always "satisfy!"

The morning L. & N. train this morning was enabled to get through to Paris and the 10:30 north bound train arrived here about 12 o'clock. Another wash-out on the L. & N. at the top of the Maysville hill this morning held the trains for some time. It was not of a serious nature, however.

REPLY TO CHARGES OF THE DEMOCRATS BEING PREPARED

Republican Leaders Declare They Will "Crucify Cox On His Own Cross" At Chicago Investigation.

Chicago, Aug. 30. — Leaders of the Republican party spent yesterday and last night preparing a mass of documentary evidence to be presented to the Senate campaign investigating committee when it reconvenes today to look into methods used in conducting the Presidential campaign.

This evidence, they declared, would prove untrue the charges of Governor James M. Cox, Democratic nominee, that "a $15,000,000 corruption fund," was being raised by the Republicans and would "crucify Cox on his own cross."

Will Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, arrived Sunday morning and he and Fred W. Upland, treasurer of the National Committee, were in conference until late last night. Under their supervision copies of the party's books and records were made, containing the names of every contributor to the campaign fund and the amount given the party's campaign budget estimated quotas assigned districts.

Another statement prepared is said to show the expenditures of the party in the campaign. "It all will be given to the committee tomorrow," said Mr. Upland. "It will show that there is no corruption, no slush fund, and that Governor Cox's statements are absolutely untrue."

Previous statements by Mr. Hayes and Mr. Upland that the Republican party would not contend with defending itself from Governor Cox's charges but would present evidence concerning the Democratic campaign fund were reiterated.

"We will fight fire with fire," said Mr. Hays. "We will not only make public everything connected with our campaign, but we will force the Democrats to do the same. We warned them at the start that we would not take their aspersions lying down and we are going to back up that statement."

Senator Walter E. Edge, Republican, of New Jersey, arrived unexpectedly Sunday and will take part in the hearings. Senator Edge, a member of the Senate Committee, has been in Europe and has not attended any of the hearings since the convention.

SUICIDE GIRL IS IDENTIFIED BY HER SISTER

Anonymous Note Gives Name of Young Woman From Winchester—Body Identified.

Ashland, Ky., Aug. 30.—The girl who died under mysterious circumstances in a hotel here a week ago has been identified through an anonymous letter as Miss Lucy Marlow Horton, a college graduate and member of a Winchester, Ky., family.

Positive identification of the body by relatives has failed to clear up the mystery surrounding her death, and, though the theory that she ended her life by taking poison is regarded as plausible, a full investigation will be made.

The girl had just completed a summer teacher's course at Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va. She had planned to teach this year. After a short visit with friends in Union, W. Va., she wrote her relatives at Winchester that she would return home last Monday.

She arrived in Ashland, where it was necessary to change trains at 5 o'clock Monday morning. She went to the Capitol Hotel, near the station, where she registered as "Elizabeth Ware, Madison, W. Va." She went to her room and did not reappear. At 10 o'clock there was a scream in her room.

Hotel attaches found the door locked. They forced their way into the room. The girl fully dressed was lying on the bed in a stupor. A few minutes after arrival of a physician she died.

"Did you take poison?" the doctor asked her just before she died.

The physician believes she slightly nodded her head, but is not positive.

No poison recentable could be found. Strychnine caused her death, the physician said.

She left no note. There was nothing to indicate her identity. She was pretty and was modestly dressed. There was $7.50 in her purse.

Authorities had almost given up hope and were planning to bury the body when an unsigned letter was received by the undertaker from Page, W. Va. The anonymous writer declared that the body was that of Miss Lucy Marlow Horton, who lived with her foster sister, Mrs. Cordell, in Winchester, Ky.

Mrs. Cordell, on arrival Sunday, positively identified the body as that of Miss Horton. The girl had been in bad health since an attack of influenza. Mrs. Cordell said, and this was the only motive she could attribute for her suicide.
